Figurative Language Bank for Composition

1. Similes

Comparing two things using like or as.

1. The silence hung in the air like a thick blanket.
2. Her heart pounded like a drum as she approached the mysterious door.
3. The golden sunlight spread across the landscape like liquid gold.
4. His thoughts raced like wild horses, leaving him unable to concentrate.
5. The old house stood on the hill like a forgotten giant.

2. Metaphors

Describing something by directly comparing it to something else.

1. Fear was a shadow that followed him everywhere.
2. The city was a maze of endless streets and unfamiliar faces.
3. Her mind was a battlefield of conflicting thoughts.
4. The morning was a canvas painted in shades of gold and pink.
5. His words were daggers, piercing her confidence.

3. Personification

Giving human qualities or actions to non-human things.

1. The darkness crept silently through the empty corridors.
2. The restless waves crashed angrily against the shore.
3. The ancient walls guarded countless untold secrets.
4. The wind tugged impatiently at my coat.
5. The morning sun stretched its golden fingers across the rooftops.

4. Hyperbole

Using deliberate exaggeration to create emphasis or a strong impression.

1. My mind was bursting with a thousand unanswered questions.
2. The journey seemed to stretch on for an eternity.
3. His excitement could have shaken the entire building.
4. I searched every corner of the world for an answer.
5. The weight of responsibility felt heavier than a mountain.

5. Expressions for Different Writing Situations

Situation	Useful expression
Fear	A knot of fear tightened in my stomach.
Happiness	Joy bubbled inside me like a fountain.
Sadness	A wave of sorrow washed over me.
Anger	Her anger simmered beneath the surface.
Suspense	An uneasy silence settled over the room.
Mystery	Secrets lurked in every shadow.
Loneliness	The silence became my only companion.
Excitement	Anticipation danced through my mind.
A storm	The sky unleashed its fury.
A peaceful setting	Nature rested beneath a blanket of silence