Q1 Read the sentences carefully. Identify the verb(s) in bold and classify each as a regular verb, irregular verb or modal verb.

* The investigators discovered a hidden passage beneath the old mansion.

* Sherlock Holmes might have overlooked an important clue.

* The witness spoke confidently during the interrogation.

* The villagers were frightened by the mysterious events.

* You must not disclose confidential information.

* The explorers had abandoned their expedition before sunset.

* The suspect could have escaped through the back entrance.

* The author described the setting in remarkable detail.

Q2 Use the correct form of the verb given in brackets.

* The detective had _____ (write) a detailed account before the inspector arrived.

* The missing documents were _____ (find) beneath the wooden floor.

* The children _____ (carry) the equipment to the laboratory yesterday.

* The suspect has _____ (deny) all allegations.

* The old bridge was _____ (build) more than a century ago.

* The explorers had _____ (choose) a different route before the storm began.

* The witness _____ (admit) that he had _____ (see) the stranger.

* The committee has _____ (approve) the proposal.