

1.3

Worksheet: Complex sentences

1 Add to these clauses to make complex sentences.

a) Since I am hungry, ...

b) Although I am late, ...

c) Before the show finishes, ...

d) Since we are already here, ...

e) Because they are happy, ...

2 Add a dependent clause to each of the following to create a complex sentence.

You can use so, after, when, because or since.

a) _____,
he was still friends with him.

b) _____,
we will have to go home.

c) _____,
we will have to wait in line.

d) _____,
the children are now hungry.

e) _____,
there was some bread left.

3 Complete the complex sentences by adding independent clauses.

a) In the afternoon, ...

b) For the last time, ...

c) After the meal, ...

d) Although I met them, ...

e) Since they were not there, ...

f) Wherever we are, ...

g) Even though I am tired, ...

h) Although we won, ...

i) While I was sitting and waiting, ...

j) Before the movie, ...

k) After the play, ...
