Narrative Writing – Second Draft Worksheet

Story Title: _____

Step 1: Read Your First Draft

Before you start writing your second draft, reread your story carefully.

- ☒ Circle any words that you could make stronger.
- ☒ Underline sentences that need more detail.
- ☒ Check if your story has a clear beginning, middle, and end.

Step 2: Plan Your Revisions

Fill in the chart below before rewriting your story.

What I want to fix or improve	My new idea or change
Add more describing words	"The lake sparkled under the morning sun."
Make the ending stronger	The character feels hopeful, not sad.
Check my spelling and punctuation	Fix capital letters and commas.

Step 3: Write Your Second Draft Below

Remember to use descriptive details, strong verbs, and complete sentences.

Title: _____

(Write your full second draft here. You may skip lines for neatness. Write 3 paragraphs)

This image shows a full page of white paper with horizontal grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page, typical of notebook or legal stationery. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the page.

□ Step 4: Self-Reflection

Check off what you improved in your second draft!

- ☐ I added more describing words.
- ☐ I made my sentences smoother and easier to read.
- ☐ I fixed spelling and punctuation mistakes.
- ☐ My story has a clear beginning, middle, and end.
- ☐ My ending shows what the character learned or felt.
- ☐ I am proud of my improvements! 🎉
